STANFORD, KY., FRIDAY, DECEMBER 4, 1908.

NO. 79.

LANCASTER.

Mr. John Hurt, one of Garrard's most prominent citizens, died at his home near Hiattsville Wednesday morning.

Corn is selling at $3 in the field. The crop in Garrard is one of the best in 20 years, and the farmers are reaping a fortune.

Two train crews of the K. C. have been here this week attending court. "Shorty" Merrimee, the clever dispatcher, was with the bunch.

It is astonishing that so many people do not know that the local candidates nominated Saturday will not be voted for until next November—just one year hence.

The Woman's Club met at the Christian church Tuesday afternoon, with large attendance. This organization is proving quite interesting and enjoyable for its members.

The Lancaster Fair Association have made formal announcement of dates for their next exhibition—July 28, 29, 30. These were agreed upon some time ago, and are considered the best of the season.

The Lancaster tobacco warehouse is receiving so much of the weed that a night shift of hands will doubtless be put on. The price remains at from 15 to 18 cents, and is bringing dead loads of coin to the farmers.

The new schedule of trains will give Stanford a through train, leaving there about 5:20 p. m., and arriving in Louisville at 8:15. No. 24 will pass about 4:21 and get into Louisville at 7:15 a. m. These trains will be the finest in the South.

The city council is figuring on placing a number of water meters in town, and the proposition is a good one, as so many people waste the water. If the entire plant could be run on the meter system it would be better for both the town and consumer.

Hon. J. Mort Rothwell, who was accidentally shot, at the home of John Holmes, is improving and will be moved home in a day or so. The wound is not dangerous, but, on account of the weather, it was deemed best to postpone bringing him to town.

The Republicans are already figuring on soreness among the Democrats and are beginning to look about for candidates, but the men defeated at Saturday's primary are true blue and will be found fighting in the ranks of the party when the common enemy is to be faced.

The Democratic county committee met Tuesday and declared the following majorities received by successful candidates in the primary: J. W. Hamilton, for county clerk, 548; Geo. T. Ballard, for sheriff, 35; W. B. Mason, for circuit clerk, 603; Jack Adams, for jailer, 218; J. P. Bourne, for magistrate, 96.

Notwithstanding the fact that the primary passed off without trouble, yet there were several hair-breadth escapes from serious difficulties. No election was ever so stubbornly fought, and the friends of each candidate were on hand with his nerves strung to the highest tension. It is fortunate, indeed, that a few cool heads were present.

The warm spell spoiled most all the hog meat killed some weeks ago, and the loss will be severe. It was believed for a time it could be saved, but all hope has been abandoned. Possibly the people will, in course of time, realize that the seasons have changed and that we will soon be enjoying hot sunshine for Christmas, with delightful snow on Fourth of July.

Circuit Court has been in session all week and many cases have been disposed of, but none of much interest to the public. As usual, there are a number of suits against the railroad company and two train crews have been in attendance all week. Judge Bell, while not crowding the attorneys, keeps business going at a lively pace, and little time is killed. Judge Bell is greatly admired by lawyers and litigants by his prompt, fair dealing with all.

Your correspondent has heard many expressions of satisfaction in the fact that there is little probability of Hon. Charles Hardin having opposition for re-nomination for Commonwealth's Attorney. It is certain that Garrard will put no one against him, as our people appreciate his splendid work as an official and know that he puts forth every effort to bring to justice every criminal brought before the court. His decision to offer for another term is appreciated by all who want officials who play no favorites.

Hon. Fountaine Fox Bobbitt has been attending circuit court. Senator Geo. T. Farris came home for the primary. Judge M. C. Saulley was among the visiting attorneys at court this week. George B. Harris has returned from Stanford. Mrs. Juliet Rogers visited in Danville Tuesday. Misses Margaret and Joanne Mount entertained at dinner Tuesday, in honor of Miss Julia Higgins. Mrs. Jno M. Farra has returned from a visit to her parents in upper Garrard. Miss Altie Marksbury entertained at dinner in honor of Miss Maggie Tomlinson, Mrs. Mary Frisbie and Miss Julia Higgins.

No rain of consequence yet, and the light plant closes at nine each night.

Those of our young people who attended the dance at Stanford Friday evening returned showering praise and compliments upon the hosts for the elegant reception given them. They say they have never attended a more brilliant or delightful function and will never forget the royal hospitality extended them.

Misses Edna and Norma Ballew, of Richmond, are visiting their aunt, Miss Tommie Francis. Mrs. Lavenia Brown Park, of Richmond, has been the guest of her sister, Mrs. Jas. A. Royston. Mrs. Z. T. Rice and pretty daughter, of Richmond, have been visiting her mother, Mrs. Carrie Davidson. Mrs. Alexander Kennedy, of Lexington, is visiting her daughter, Mrs. Banks Hudson. Miss Polly Traylor has been the attractive guest of Miss Annie Herndon. Miss Julia Higgins, of Richmond, who has been the guest of Mrs. Louis Landram, returned home yesterday. Mrs. Jno. E. Stormes, is visiting in Covington.

The new train service will be placed on the Rowland Branch Dec. 21st. The present day train will be taken off and a train, leaving Louisville about 7 a. m., will pass through Lancaster to Richmond about 11:30 a. m. This train will return from Richmond, immediately after the arrival of a train from Cincinnati and run back to Louisville, arriving there about 5:55 p. m. The trains now passing Lancaster at 5 a. m. and 8:30 p. m., will not be taken off. Arrangements will be made for the present local freight to carry passengers who cannot make connections with the trains South on the Knoxville Division, connecting at Rowland. The new train will do local work from Rowland to Louisville, the present day trains over there being made through runs between these points, a new feature which will be greatly appreciated by the traveling public.

BRODHEAD.

Sam Sayers, of Spiro, sold to John Hunt, of Maresburg, a yearling mule colt for $92.50.

The educational lecture delivered here last Monday was very good, but not as many heard it as should.

The box supper Saturday night for the benefit of the Methodist church was a success financially. Although the night was bad the crowd was good.

Dr. Carter has returned from a visit to the homefolks. Mrs. P. E. Shivel and little Miss Nina Albright are on the sick list.

The Cumberland Telephone Co.'s crew of men are this far stringing copper wire. The crew of 17 men is stopping at the Albright House.

Mrs. J. J. Edwards, Mr. and Mrs. J. G. Taylor, Mrs. C. H. Pigg and son, Leslie, of Richmond, visited relatives here this week. Ernest Thompson, of Mt. Vernon, was in town Sunday. Editor Albright, of Mt. Vernon, attended the lecture here Monday.

Rev. C. C. Wilson and G. E. Painter, of this place, Rev. C. C. Metcalf, of Maresburg, and H. C. Gentry, of Mt. Vernon, attended the 5th Sunday meeting at Sinking Valley church Saturday and Sunday. Rev. Wilson began a revival at Poplar Grove Sunday night.

The old log house which stood alongside the road two miles west of here, and known as the "Annie Edwards house," is no longer an eyesore to the public and the travelers need feel no longer cold chills or hair stand on end in passing it. Morris Frith has torn the old dilapidated building away and nothing remains to be seen but a portion of the chimney. Morris is now hauling lumber to the spot where he intends erecting a nice residence. There is some little bit of history connected with the old log house, but of a blood curdling nature. For years the house and surroundings has been styled the "haunted hollow," a rendezvous for all sorts of hobgoblins, and where they will make their headquarters now is not known. Frank Brooks tells us that his grandfather, Tolbert Bowman, who died 35 years ago, and who was 88 years old at the time, used to get his grandchildren together and tell big "hant" tales about the old house. He said on one night about the breaking out of the Civil War that he was riding past the house. The night was a foggy, damp one and something large and animal-shaped and of a yellowish color, walked out of the yard, jumped up behind him and rode for three or four miles, scaring him and his horse almost to death. Other frightful stories are told of the place. The house was built more than 125 years ago.

A Dangerous Operation

Is the removal of the appendix by a surgeon. No one who takes Dr. King's New Life Pills is ever subjected to this frightful ordeal. They work so quietly you don't feel them. They cure constipation, headache, biliousness and malaria. 25c at Penny's Drug Store.

NEWS NOTES.

Robbers blew open the safe of the Olpe State Bank at Olpe, Kan., and secured $2,000.

Burglars blew open the vault of the State Bank at Port Byron, Ill., and escaped on a hand car with nearly $5,000 in cash.

In the decision in the Virginia case by the Supreme court, the railroads score heavily in their fight against the two-cent rate.

Night riders destroyed the barn of W. H. Gossar, in Warrick county, Ind. The barn was filled with tobacco and the loss is estimated at $3,000.

Four desperadoes held up a crowded street car in New York, throttled and robbed the conductor, terrorized the passengers and escaped with a goodly collection of loot.

Four safes were blown open with dynamite and their contents stolen by a gang of six robbers at Banks, Ala. Out of three of the safes the gang secured about $500 in cash, but found the fourth empty.

W. B. Frazier shot and instantly killed Constable W. B. White at Edmonton. The shooting took place in front of the People's Bank and created the wildest excitement. Frazier, who was drinking, had had trouble with White's brother.

Fire in one of the air shafts of the Central Coal and Iron Company's mine at Central City caused a slight loss but much excitement. For a time it was feared that 80 men were cut off, but they succeeded in escaping through another shaft.

The Supreme Court of the United States has granted the Standard Oil attorneys until Dec. 21 to file a brief in opposition to the government's petition for a writ of certiorari ordering up for review the judgment of the Federal circuit court of appeals in reversing the fine imposed by Judge Landis.

IN NEIGHBORING COUNTIES.

J. H. Chapman is dead at Lancaster. Mrs. Ann Broadbush, aged 75, is dead at Lowell, Garrard county.

G. W. Johnson, a wealthy citizen of the Mayo section of Mercer, is dead.

William Day, a Negro, was accidentally killed while hunting in Jessamine county.

On Sunday morning Will Merritt Barnes was shot by Will Tyree, and Mrs. Ellen Taylor, step-daughter of Mr. Barnes, a few moments later was shot by a cousin, Bob Barnes. The shooting occurred at the home of Mrs. Taylor, near the Pulaski county line, and is the result of an old feud.—London Democrat.

DEATHS OF PRESIDENTS.—Washington's death was due to acute laryngitis; Adams, Madison and Monroe, practically to old age; Jefferson, chronic diarrhoea; John Quincy Adams, paralysis; Jackson, dropsy; Van Buren, catarrhal affections of the throat and lungs; William Henry Harrison, pleurisy; Tyler, cause of death not given by biographers; Polk, cholera; Taylor, cholera morbus; combined with a severe cold; Fillmore, paralysis; Pierce, dropsy; Buchanan, rheumatic gout; Lincoln, Garfield and McKinley, assassinated; Johnson, paralysis; Grant, cancer at the root of the tongue; Hayes, neuralgia of the heart; Arthur, heart trouble; Benjamin Harrison, pneumonia; Grover Cleveland, stomach trouble.

Mrs. McRaney's Experience.

Mrs. M. McRaney, Prentiss, Miss., writes: "I was confined to my bed for three months with kidney and bladder trouble, and was treated by two physicians but failed to get relief. No human tongue can tell how I suffered, and I had given up hope of ever getting well until I began taking Foley's Kidney Remedy. After taking two bottles I felt like a new person, and feel it my duty to tell suffering women what Foley's Kidney Remedy did for me." New Stanford Drug Co.

HUSTONVILLE.

The ladies of the C. W. B. M. met Thursday at 2 o'clock with Mrs. Emmett McCormack.

Allen Burris, wife and son, of Colorado Springs, are guests of her mother, Mrs. Jennie Carpenter.

McCormack & Co. shipped to Cincinnati one car of hogs at 3½ to 5c, one car of lambs at 3½ to 4½c, one car of butcher stuff at 2½ to 3c.

Our hustling huckster, Jake Walle, is shipping quantities of rabbits, squirrels, ducks, geese and turkeys, for which he pays the market price. If you have a surplus, drop him a card here.

The musical program and flag drill by the Sunday school at the Christian church Sunday night was well rendered and evidenced care and patience by their teachers as well as vocal talent by the children.

The warm weather that prevailed in this section caused much uneasiness among a number of our farmers who had killed hogs. Several have reported that their meat spoiled and all gladly welcomed the cold snap.

Mr. Wallace Wolf and wife, of Covington, arrived Thanksgiving day for a visit to Mrs. Wolf's mother, Mrs. T. G. Tupman, and other relatives. Mr. Charles Wheeler is on the sick list, the result of too much Thanksgiving dinner.

James Yowell sold 100 1,250-pound cattle at 5c. Lillard & Fox got 50 and J. C. Johnson 50, to be delivered Dec. 24. G. C. Lyon sold Lutes a bunch of fat cattle. Two of the lot weighed 1,650 pounds each, for which he received nearly $200.

Rev. W. S. Willis' subject Sunday morning will be "The Work of the C. W. B. M." In the afternoon and evening the annual Sunday school rally will be held and speakers prominent in the work, with some special music for the occasion should fill the house with the workers in His vineyard.

Next week the names of all students who attain a rating in their studies that entitles them to be on the roll of honor, will be published in these columns. This will be continued after each examination has been made and all new entries to the honor roll will be named and special mention given those who are deserving, regardless of the grade.

In one of Gill Cowan's pastures near his home there were four cattle that had been there for several weeks and seemed to be thriving on the luxurious grass. Friday morning they all died under very suspicious circumstances. A veterinary surgeon was called from Danville and pronounced the cause Par. is green. Two of the cattle belonged to Mr. Cowan and the others to Emmett McCormack and Frank Vaughn.

The Ladies of the Presbyterian church at Hustonville will hold their annual church fair, Dec. 12th, in the Emporium flats. They will have on sale many useful presents for Xmas, also a hail of youth that fully restores youth and beauty. Patronize this department. Will also serve a substantial meal. Oysters any style, from high noon until 12 o'clock at night. Our aim is to make the social feature very enjoyable. Professor Aeolian, of New York, will furnish music for the occasion. Will render many numbers from the classics that can be heard only in the cities on special occasions. See program later.

It is a pleasure, genuine and sincere, to announce that a citizen of this place received a letter Sunday from General Manager Horace Baker, of the C. & N. O. & T. P. railroad, saying that beginning on Dec. 7th trains No. 27 and 28 would run between Moreland and Cincinnati every day except Sunday. These trains formerly ran between Cincinnati and Moreland and were taken off Oct. 17. Their time of arrival will be about the same as formerly. It is useless to say that we enjoy this news, for [the thanks of every one in this community, regardless of color or condition, freely and cheerfully go out to Mr. Baker and associates. It is the duty of us all in the West End, likewise those living in Casey, south of us—contributory—to aid in every way possible to further the interests of the company and increase, especially, the business of these two trains. Our Commercial Club and all our people thank General Manager Baker most sincerely for considering us so favorably.

Medicine That is Medicine.

"I have suffered a good deal with malaria and stomach complaints, but I have now found a remedy that keeps me well, and that remedy is Electric Bitters: a medicine that is medicine for stomach and liver troubles, and for run down conditions," says W. C. Klestler, of Halliday, Ark. Electric Bitters purify and enrich the blood, tone up the nerves, and impart vigor and energy to the weak. Your money will be refunded if it fails to help you. 50c at Penny's Drug Store.

The warm weather that prevailed in this section caused much uneasiness among a number of our farmers who had killed hogs. Several have reported that their meat spoiled and all gladly welcomed the cold snap.

Mr. Wallace Wolf and wife, of Covington, arrived Thanksgiving day for a visit to Mrs. Wolf's mother, Mrs. T. G. Tupman, and other relatives. Mr. Charles Wheeler is on the sick list, the result of too much Thanksgiving dinner.

James Yowell sold 100 1,250-pound cattle at 5c. Lillard & Fox got 50 and J. C. Johnson 50, to be delivered Dec. 24. G. C. Lyon sold Lutes a bunch of fat cattle. Two of the lot weighed 1,650 pounds each, for which he received nearly $200.

Rev. W. S. Willis' subject Sunday morning will be "The Work of the C. W. B. M." In the afternoon and evening the annual Sunday school rally will be held and speakers prominent in the work, with some special music for the occasion should fill the house with the workers in His vineyard.

Next week the names of all students who attain a rating in their studies that entitles them to be on the roll of honor, will be published in these columns. This will be continued after each examination has been made and all new entries to the honor roll will be named and special mention given those who are deserving, regardless of the grade.

In one of Gill Cowan's pastures near his home there were four cattle that had been there for several weeks and seemed to be thriving on the luxurious grass. Friday morning they all died under very suspicious circumstances. A veterinary surgeon was called from Danville and pronounced the cause Parvitis green. Two of the cattle belonged to Mr. Cowan and the others to Emmett McCormack and Frank Vaughn.

The Ladies of the Presbyterian church at Hustonville will hold their annual church fair, Dec. 12th, in the Emporium flats. They will have on sale many useful presents for Xmas, also a ball of youth that fully restores youth and beauty. Patronize this department. Will also serve a substantial meal. Oysters any style, from high noon until 12 o'clock at night. Our aim is to make the social feature very enjoyable. Professor Aeolian, of New York, will furnish music for the occasion. Will render many numbers from the classics that can be heard only in the cities on special occasions. See program later.

It is a pleasure, genuine and sincere, to announce that a citizen of this place received a letter Sunday from General Manager Horace Baker, of the C., N. O. & T. P. railroad, saying that beginning on Dec. 7th trains No. 27 and 28 would run between Moreland and Cincinnati every day except Sunday. These trains formerly ran between Cincinnati and Moreland and were taken off Oct. 17. Their time of arrival will be about the same as formerly. It is useless to say that we enjoy this news, for [the thanks of every one in this community, regardless of color or condition, freely and cheerfully go out to Mr. Baker and associates. It is the duty of us all in the West End, likewise those living in Casey, south of us—contributory—to aid in every way possible to further the interests of the company and increase, especially, the business of these two trains. Our Commercial Club and all our people thank General Manager Baker most sincerely for considering us so favorably.

Medicine That Is Medicine.
"I have suffered a good deal with malaria and stomach complaints, but I have now found a remedy that keeps me well, and that remedy is Electric Bitters: a medicine that is medicine for stomach and liver troubles, and for run down conditions," says W. C. Klester, of Halliday, Ark. Electric Bitters purify and enrich the blood, tone up the nerves, and impart vigor and energy to the weak. Your money will be refunded if it fails to help you. 50c at Peany's Drug Store.

THE whisky people are getting much joy out of the fact that most of the county officers nominated by the democrats of Marion county are "wet." They think that means that the backbone of the local opposition is broken. Be that as it may. The prohibitionists are pretty game fighters and we do not believe they will let all of their hard work go for naught because one county happens to nominate a majority of its county officers who do not want an extension of the County Unit law. The whisky business sent a republican Representative to Frankfort from Marion county last session. We sincerely hope there will not be a repetition of such a calamity.

FRANKLIN county people want a new court-house and certainly they should have one. The temple of justice at the capital city is even worse looking than any of the "awful three"—the ones at this place, Harrodsburg and Lebanon. Frankfort should have a court-house in keeping with the magnificent little city under the hill.

ALL fourth-class postmasters in the States East of the Mississippi River and North of the Ohio River have been placed in the classified service by an order of the President. Hereafter all the appointees to fourth-class postmasterhips in those States must undergo civil service examination.

THE pastor of a Boston church has announced that unless a young lady is willing to promise to love, to honor and obey, he will not officiate at her wedding. This settles his hash. The "bean-eaters" will call in some other minister when they want the knot tied.

It is estimated that the taking of the next census will cost nearly 13 millions of dollars. Suppose we keep the "dough" and guess at the number of people this time? The public would come about as near finding out how many there are of us.

THE purpose of the Ways and Means Committee to draft a new tariff bill materially reducing the Dingley schedules is disturbing Republican Senators who now expect that the only hope of preventing a lowering of the duties is in the Senate.

MR. WATTERSON held up his fight for the whisky interests a few weeks after the election but he got down to business good and strong Wednesday. The whisky and beer trusts are not neglected as long as Marse Henry is at home and in the saddle.

SPEAKER CANNON has sent word to President-Elect Taft saying that he will "be good," that is, he will not oppose Mr. Taft's plans for a revision of the tariff. About the next move is for Mr. Taft to declare for Mr. Cannon for speaker.

CHURCH MATTERS.

There will be a special service at the Christian church Sunday morning. Special music and the sermon by the pastor. All the singers are requested to be at choir practice Friday night.

The meeting at Hebron church in the East End, conducted by the pastor, Rev. F. M. Palmer, and assisted by Miss Lucy Lee Mahan, of London, closed Tuesday night. There were about 30 professions and a general awakening of the church members.

Epworth League cottage prayer meeting was held with Mrs. H. C. Rupley Tuesday at 2:30 p. m.; with Mrs. Mary E. Parsons on Wednesday at the same hour; at Mrs. Adelia Woods' Thursday afternoon and at the parsonage today, Friday, at 2:30 p. m. These meetings are held in the interest of the "Harbin-Gince meeting."

Rev. Walter G. Harbin, of Mississippi, will preach at the Methodist church Sunday morning and night. Rev. Gince, the popular singer, will have charge of the music. Song service Saturday night will also be conducted by Rev. Gince. This meeting is to be a union meeting. We desire the good will of all people. All singers of all the churches are cordially invited. All classes are requested to hear Revs. Harbin and Gince.

POLITICAL.

The President and Mrs. Roosevelt celebrated the 22nd anniversary of their marriage Wednesday.

Daniel J. Keefe, of Detroit, Mich., was appointed commissioner general of immigration to succeed the late Frank P. Sargent.

Robert F. Maddox was elected mayor of Atlanta on the Citizen's ticket by 3,000 majority, defeating J. G. Woodward, the democratic nominee.

President Roosevelt has decided to reappoint W. D. Crum. The Negro collector of the port of Charleston, S. C., and to retain Martin Knapp as a member of the Interstate Commerce Commission.

Gov. Willson has decided to have a semi-annual examination of the State's books made and will probably recommend to the Legislature that a controller be employed to further safeguard the State's money.

MATRIMONIAL.

Divorced persons "are" barred from teaching in the Memphis, Tenn., public schools.

Herbert Ashley and Miss Mary Baugh were made one at W. B. Ashley's Wednesday.

Wesley Belcher and Miss Sarah Erwin, both of this county, were united in wedlock's holy bonds Tuesday.

Children's exercises will be held at the Turnersville Christian church beginning at 11 o'clock Sunday morning.

Capt. Sam M. Boone, of Somerset, known as the "Old Pioneer," was married at Ashland to the widow of Judge Poage.

John F. Baugh, a widower of 54, and Mrs. Martha J. Payne, a widow of 45, were married yesterday at the home of Rev. Brooks.

Ed C. Hubble and Miss Pearl Mobley were married at Hustonville Wednesday. The groom, who is a fine young man, is a son of Mr. John P. Hubble, of the Turnersville section. The bride is the pretty and popular daughter of Mr. C. Mobley, of McKinney.

Mrs. JOHN AVERY HALDEMAN was the hostess at a beautiful dance given at the Galt House last evening in honor of her debutante daughter, Miss Jean Buchanan. The entertainment was one of the handsomest of the season, and the decorations were unusually beautiful and tasteful. Miss Jean Buchanan, sister of Mrs. Haldean, assisted her in receiving. — Tuesday's Courier-Journal.

SHERIFF T. J. HILL took to Frankfort this week Percy Stewart, who got two years for general larceny, and Wm. Welch, who was sentenced for five years for stealing a horse from Tinsley Spoonamore. Both are colored.

HARRIS.—Frank Harris, who was chief train dispatcher on this branch of the L. & N. when the dispatcher's office was at Rowland, is dead at Lebanon, where he was agent for the above company. He is survived by his wife and son, Albert Harris.

THE Negro, Bob Hocker, who killed Newton Veal, a Fayette county farmer, will be hanged in the Lexington jail yard this morning. Hocker lived for years in the Hubble section of this county and was seen around here while evading the officers just after the murder.

MR. CHARLES A. HARDIN, of Harrodsburg, who has made a most acceptable Commonwealth's Attorney for this district, is a candidate to succeed himself, subject to the action of the democratic party. We sincerely hope he will be nominated and elected. His splendid work for the past five years entitles him to the office at least another term and he should have opposition from neither party. We predict he will represent the Commonwealth in the counties of Lincoln, Boyle, Mercer and Garrard six more years and continue to be the terror to evil doers that he now is.

SUPT. COATES, of Richmond, made splendid addresses to good crowds at this place, Crab Orchard and Hustonville on Nov. 30. He spoke in highest terms of the new school law, which provides that every county shall have a high school and that all pupils in rural districts, completing the common school course will be admitted free. The campaign through the county will result in much good, for which we are very thankful to State Supt. J. G. Crabbe. The speaker complimented the people of Lincoln county for having so many graded schools, under the supervision of Profs. Ireland, Davis, McIntyre, Anderson and Gilliland.

WATCH for Farris' display of Xmas goods Dec. 10.

NOTICE FENCE BUILDERS.—I have for sale on Shelby City short pike about 3,000 locust posts and stakes. Will sell cheap at once. W. M. Haucom, Junction City, Ky.

THE Devil Co. did not draw a big house Tuesday night, nor was it an entirely satisfactory show. It is a little deep for those who went to see it expecting that the devil generally would be played.

SPARKS from the chimney of the Lincoln County National Bank set fire to the canvas awning in front of the bank building Wednesday morning but the flames were extinguished without the aid of the fire company.

EVERY transaction in my store must go through my cash register, which throws out a check for every transaction. Customers will please take their checks and note the amount. In that way no mistake in account can occur. H. J. McRoberts.

PUBLIC SALE.—On county court day, Dec. 14, I will sell my house and lot on Hustonville street at 11 A. M. in front of the court house. The house consists of four rooms with good garden and large lot. Possession Jan. 1. For further information see W. A. Tribble. Mrs. G. P. Taubman.

HON. W. H. SHANKS, who most creditably represented this county in the last Legislature, will run for the office again and announces accordingly this issue. It is Mr. Shanks' desire, if nominated and elected, to be Speaker of the House and he has a legion of friends who will take great pleasure in voting to help him realize his fond hopes. Mr. Shanks is a good, clean democrat, a fine young lawyer and a christian gentleman. Lincoln county democrats would further honor themselves by nominating and electing him as their Representative again.

JUDGE BAILEY FOR COUNTY JUDGE.—Judge James P. Bailey, who made this county a most excellent judge for two terms, announces this issue for the nomination for that office; subject of course to the action of the democratic party. The county affairs were never better administered than when Judge Bailey was at the head of them and his friends all over the county will be glad to learn that he is desirous of serving them and his county again. Although not a licensed lawyer, Judge Bailey knows more law than some those of at the bar and he is in every way well equipped for the work incumbent on a county judge.

LOST, between Dr. Carpenter's and Christian church a gold swastika stick pin with diamond in center. Reward, if left at this office.

THE court of appeals affirmed the decision of the Lincoln circuit court in the case of Dawson vs the L. & N. A son of "Santa Claus" Dalton was given $500 damages for being hurt by one of the company's engines.

To all parties holding certificates of county claims: You are notified that the money is now in the county treasury to pay your claims and that you must therefore pay your taxes at once, otherwise I will have to add the penalty. T. J. Hill, S. L. C.

MR. W. S. BUNCH is a candidate to succeed himself as county attorney and his announcement will be found on our second page. There is not a better democrat anywhere than Mr. Burch and being a good lawyer and a man of much natural ability he is well fitted for the office he again aspires to fill. His record as a prosecutor is first-class and he has been ever watchful of the county affairs. Mr. Burch will greatly appreciate any consideration shown his candidacy.

Hoarse coughs and stuffy colds that may develop into pneumonia over night are quickly cured by Foley's Honey and Tar, as it soothes inflamed membranes, heals the lungs, and expels the cold from the system. New Stanford Drug Co.
